Benvenuti al BAR CAMPARi

We're an all-day-bar open from morning until evening. You can have a delicious pinsa, drink a quick espresso, or enjoy a relaxed Aperitivo in the early evening. Treat yourself to an Italian snack or a delicious dinner. Enjoy your favourite Campari cocktail at the bar or pick a bottle from our winelist. And if you feel like having an Aranciata: it's our pleasure.

Our only rule is that you should feel at home. Bar Campari lives and breathes italianità – the Italian way of life – while keeping in touch with our Viennese roots. It's exactly this combination that gives this place its unique flair.

In this spirit:

Buon appetito. We're happy to have you here.

A Garibaldi

UNITES WHAT BELONGS TOGETHER

UN „GARIBALDI“ UNISCE CIÒ CHE È DESTINATO A STARE INSIEME

Comparing northern and southern Italy is a bit like comparing apples and oranges. Despite all their differences, the revolutionary Giuseppe Garibaldi fought to unite the regions of the peninsula.

This union was immortalised in the form of a cocktail, which blends Campari from the North and sweet Sicilian oranges from the South into a harmonious whole. As any good aperitivo should be, our Garibaldi is simplicity perfected: a velvety froth of freshly squeezed orange juice, our Campari's vibrant red, and a dash of bergamot. Add a slice of orange and ecco qua! – the Ferrari of Campari & orange juice.

VARIETY IN A GLASS:

The Italian Spritz

VARIETÀ NEL BICCHIERE:
LO SPRITZ ITALIANO

The Austrians love their wine spritzed, but the Italian world of spritz offers a rich variety that goes far beyond the classic Aperol Spritz.
No matter whether you prefer the refreshing Aperol Spritz, the fruity Sarti Spritz or the characterful Campari Spritz – one thing connects them all:
They bring a sparkle to the evening and are not just drinks, but an expression of Italian joie de vivre. Each Spritz tells its own story and offers a unique taste experience. Want something refreshing?
Then try an Aperol Spritz. Or would you rather have a fruity note?
The new Sarti Spritz is the perfect choice! And for everyone who likes it classic and full of character, the Campari Spritz is the ideal accompaniment.
‚Cause whatever the day brings, there's always a splash,
which fits it perfectly.

Crodino Spritz

MAKING YOUR APERITIVO MOMENTS TRULY UNFORGETTABLE!

PER GLI APERITIVI, CHE É IMPOSSIBILE DIMENTICARE

This refreshing Spritz can be enjoyed without regrets, because both Crodino Biondo and Crodino Rosso are alcohol-free, yet filled with the spirit of Italy. Best mixed with sparkling soda, this drink blends the aroma of Sicilian oranges or blood oranges with 30 essential herbs into a bittersweet symphony that has been ringing out from Piedmont's Crodo to Vienna and the whole world since 1965.

We found that aperitivo works well senza alcohol, but certainly not without our delicious Italian snacks and your best amici.

Il Negroni

THE COUNT AMONG THE CAMPARI COCKTAILS

IL NEGRONI: IL "CONTE" DEI CAMPARI COCKTAILS

Campari, gin and vermouth – three ingredients every Italian heart and palate yearns for after 5 p.m. Together, this delicious trio makes a Negroni, which is said to have been dreamed up by a thirsty Conte Camillo Negroni during one of his infamous drinking bouts more than a century ago. History aside, this bittersweet cocktail has rightly earned its place on bar menus around the world. It's no wonder that it spawned countless variations – in nearly as many different styles as seen on the catwalk at the annual Settimana della Moda in Milano.

So, if you're already well-acquainted with il classico, why not take a look at our Selezione del Conte and find your new favourite Negroni?

Il Negroni „Sbagliato“

WHEN A MYTH ARISES

FROMFROM A “MISTAKE”

QUANDO DA UN „ERRORE“
NASCE UN MITO

The Negroni Sbagliato was invented in 1972 by Mirko Stocchetto in Bar Basso, Milano. He was asked to make a Negroni but he used sparkling wine rather than gin. The mistake (sbagliato is the Italian word for „wrong“) gave the rise to a myth.

The Negroni „Sbagliato“ is considered to be one of the first twists to a classic, and today become a classic in its own light representing an undoubtably Milanese icon. It is the ideal start to the evening.

Averna Sour

AN ORANGE AND A LEMON WALK INTO A BAR

UN'ARANCIA INCONTRA UN LIMONE

The punchline of this joke would probably involve a perfectly balanced sour cocktail. Glad you asked: this balance is achieved by mixing the fresh acidity of citrus fruits with a sweet and aromatic spirit of your choice. Things get molto interessante when the essence of Sicilian herbs, fragrant lemon and orange peel, fruits, and roots is poured into a glass clinking with ice cubes.

L' Aperitivo

OR THE ITALIAN ART OF GETTING TOGETHER

L´APERITIVO: O MEGLIO,
L´ARTE ITALIANA DELLO STARE INSIEME

From Milano to Vienna, today's cities and their people are busier than ever.

But a true Milanese, like Campari, will not let go of their zest for life that easily.

Essentially a remedy for the hectic pace of urban life, aperitivo has become a pleasant and cherished Milanese tradition. Meet old friends and make new ones while enjoying a Campari Spritz, a Negroni, or a Campari Garibaldi, and watch your workday fade away into a delightful evening. At dinner, a good companion is vital – that's why you shouldn't miss out on the Italian delicacies to go with your drink. Take your pick!

Pinsa

PIZZA? EVERYONE KNOWS.

PINSA? PER I BUONGUSTAI!

Like the classic pizza, the pitta, piadina and focaccia, the pinsa is a type of flatbread that you can either top like a pizza or enjoy straight, without anything. But the pinsa, as the classic street food of Roma, for sure is celebrated at Bar Campari and comes with particularly refined taste variations and a special dough. The big difference to other flat doughs lies in the flour mixture, which makes the dough extra crispy. In addition, it is made with water, olive oil, a little salt and a very long kneading process, which makes the pinsa light and unique.

Enjoy our gourmet pinsa with the perfect cocktail for a real aperitivo italiano.
Buon appetito e cin cin!
